

Gustavo Lino Adrianzén Olaya

President of the Council of Ministers
Republic of Perú

Start date in office: March 6, 2024

Lawyer from the University of Lima. Holds a Master's in Public Administration and Management from the National Institute of Public Administration (INAP - Spain). Also possesses an equivalent degree in Law from the University of Alcalá de Henares. In addition, he has pursued studies in the Interdepartmental Doctoral Program in Government and Public Administration at the Complutense University of Madrid, and is a specialist in human rights with postgraduate studies in Geneva (Switzerland), Strasbourg (France), San José (Costa Rica), and Florence (Italy). Moreover, he has worked as a consultant for the Inter-American Development Bank, the United Nations Development Program, the International Finance Corporation (IFC), among other national and international institutions.

He served as Minister of Justice and Human Rights from April to October 2015, as well as Deputy Minister of Justice from March to April of the same year. He has also been a public attorney at the Ministry of Defense and a specialized public attorney for the National Police of Peru. In October 2015, he was honored with the Order of Merit for Distinguished Services, in the rank of Grand Cross. Before assuming his role as the President of the Council of Ministers, he acted as Peru's representative to the Organization of American States (OAS).